We present a unique opportunity in the Llano de Brujas area, Murcia. This land has a large space of 4,500 m², ideal for those looking to build their home in the midst of nature or develop a residential project. The property includes a rustic house that needs renovation, giving the buyer the possibility to adapt the property according to their personal needs and tastes. Although there are currently no defined bedrooms or bathrooms within the built area, the potential is enormous thanks to the vast land available for new constructions or significant improvements. This offer is valued at â‚¬90,000 and represents an excellent investment for both individuals and real estate...(Ask for More Details!)
