Nice top-floor place with its own terrace. This apartment is perfect whether you're looking for a full-time home or just a spot for getaways and vacations. You get into the house through a big terrace with a private garden. From there, you head up the stairs to the main floor, where there's a large, bright living and dining area. The kitchen is open-plan, which just makes everything easier for day-to-day living. For the bedrooms, there are three: two doubles and a third room that works great as a single, a kid's room, or an office. They all have built-in wardrobes, so there's plenty of storage. There's also a...(Ask for More Details!)
