 Possibility of conversion to residential useThis is a great opportunity to acquire a 210 m² commercial space currently undergoing renovation, located in a strategic area with high foot traffic. The space offers various potential uses, ranging from retail or office space to even converting it into a residential property. We have an architect available to assist with the entire conversion process. The property is currently under renovation but will be delivered with the following new finishes:
 • Newly installed flooring
 • High-quality new windows
 • Open-plan space, ready to be adapted to suit your project needsAlthough the current photos show...(Ask for More Details!)
