Beautiful semi-detached bungalow in the well-known Frondoso Valley development in Torreguil, located 15 minutes from the city of Murcia in the heart of the Sierra del Majal Blanco. This perfectly maintained home has been lovingly cared for and maintained by its owners, making it their home for all these years. The exterior of the home features a porch next to a garden area and a partially covered parking space on the side. The meticulously decorated interior consists of a living-dining room, an open-plan kitchen, a guest bathroom with a walk-in shower, a second bedroom, and a master bedroom with a dressing area and en suite bathroom.
