New promotion in Albir consisting of a set of 10 villas with idyllic architecture that achieves modernity without losing traditions, thanks to the use of noble and local materials. Its location allows for walking to the beach and the center of Albir. Similarly, the natural park of Sierra Helada allows you to enjoy nature just a short distance from home. Each of these villas features a garden, barbecue, and private pool reminiscent of the turquoise waters of the island, complete with a waterfall that cascades into the pool. There is also the option to integrate a bench with a jacuzzi and hydrotherapy jets into the pool. They consist of 4...(Ask for More Details!)
