Living in the heart of Moraira without giving up the calm of the Mediterranean is a privilege accessible to very few. This 105-square-meter apartment, located on the coveted Avenida de la Paz and just 100 meters from the sea, offers the opportunity to forget about the car and enjoy the beaches, the harbor, and the local gastronomy on foot. Built in 1997 and maintained to an impeccable standard of quality, it immediately stands out in the market of any Moraira real estate for its strategic location and spectacular sea views. The property stands out for its natural light and a very comfortable layout that maximizes the connection with the outdoors...(Ask for More Details!)
