Exclusive villa in Orihuela with private plot and agricultural profitability. In the heart of the Costa Blanca lies this magnificent property, a villa that perfectly combines elegance, spaciousness, and interesting investment potential. With a constructed area of 495 m² spread over three floors, the house is integrated into a 1,000 m² private residential area with a pool and barbecue area, within a fully fenced 9,480 m² estate that guarantees maximum privacy. One of its greatest attractions is its agricultural production of Verna lemons, with traditional irrigation, which provides an approximate annual income of between €15,000 and €20,000, making the property a solid investment that combines the charm of the countryside with...
