Charming country villa for sale in Lucena Del Puerto. A detached two storey house with tennis court, swimming pool and guest annex located only 5 minutes from a traditional small working village with medical centre, post office, chemist, shops, bars, etc. Set against a backdrop of protected woodland and pine trees, this four bedroom traditional style country villa has been tastefully maintained and modernised for all year round living, boasting a deceptively large interior. Standing in almost 7,000 square metres of land it has its own gated driveway access from a Tarmac road, car port garage, separate annex building, storeroom, large patio and covered terrace, plus landscaped gardens and swimming...(Ask for More Details!)
