Exceptional Building Plot with Project in the Heart of Mallorca This unique finca plot offers a rare opportunity to create a private countryside estate in one of Mallorca's most peaceful and authentic locations, close to the charming town of Porreres. Set on an impressive 23,285 m² plot, this property combines privacy, nature, and development potential, making it ideal for a luxury rural home, horse property, or self-sufficient lifestyle project. A major advantage of this property is that it already comes with an approved building permit (basic project) for two buildings. In addition, the property previously had permission to drill a deep well, which can be applied for again and should not... (Ask for More Details!)
