Located in Altozano, one of the most established and functional residential areas of Alicante. A well-connected neighborhood with all essential services within walking distance: supermarkets, schools, public transport, green areas, and fast access to the city center and main roads. The apartment offers a practical layout and good natural light, designed for comfortable everyday living. Well-proportioned rooms and efficient use of space make it suitable both as a main residence and as an investment, supported by the area's strong and consistent rental demand. Altozano provides genuine urban living with residential stability. It is a lived-in neighborhood with active local commerce, nearby healthcare services, and long-term value retention. A well-located, solid...(Ask for
