Costa Blanca Eiendom presents this elegant apartment with an independent entrance, currently under full renovation and reconstruction, located in the charming San Antón neighborhood of Alicante – one of the city’s most authentic and up-and-coming areas. The property is being completely refurbished, including plumbing, electrical systems, and interior finishes, and will feature top-quality furnishings and materials, ensuring a modern, efficient, and long-lasting home. The renders shown are indicative of the project’s final appearance once the renovation is completed. Upon entering the property, a private staircase leads to the main level, where you’ll find a bright two-bedroom, two-bathroom apartment designed in a contemporary style with natural materials. The
