Experience a lifestyle defined by quiet luxury and proximity within the magic of open countryside and citrus orchards stretching from Montgó to the azure coast just beyond. La Azahar is a south-facing finca that sits at the edge of El Verger, just five minutes from the most beautiful beaches in Costa Blanca and walking distance from quaint bustle of village life. The single-level layout extends directly to a south-facing terrace, with views of open countryside and the Montgó mountains reaching beyond the property's own citrus orchard.

La Azahar is designed for a life that moves easily between inside and out. While the open-plan kitchen and living room... (Ask for More Details!)
