The apartments at Talasa Terra offer a perfect blend of comfort, functionality, and contemporary Mediterranean design. Located from the first floor upwards, these homes are designed to provide privacy, natural light, and generous outdoor living spaces. Available with 2 bedrooms, the apartments range from approximately 67 to 81 m² and feature well-designed layouts that maximize both space and usability. The open-plan living and dining areas connect seamlessly to spacious terraces, creating an ideal setting for relaxing, dining, and enjoying the mild Costa Blanca climate throughout the year. Large windows enhance the sense of space and brightness, while high-quality finishes and energy-efficient installations ensure a comfortable and sustainable living environment.
