Talasa Terra is the second phase of the exclusive Talasa Utopian Village, offering a carefully designed collection of 65 homes with 2 and 3 bedrooms. Built with a strong focus on sustainability, energy efficiency, and quality of life, this development combines modern architecture with a relaxed Mediterranean lifestyle. The project features a mix of townhouses, apartments, and penthouses. The design creates a perfect balance between community living and private comfort, where residents can enjoy shared spaces while each home benefits from its own indoor and outdoor areas. The homes vary in size from approximately 67 m² to 118 m², offering flexible options for different lifestyles. Prices start from around €267,000...(Ask for More Details!)
