Project - A dwelling with a clear concept, aiming to create a fusion between the interior and exterior, resulting in open, bright, and functional spaces. The living room spills onto the terrace, inviting you to enjoy the wonderful Mediterranean climate, which provides us with nearly 300 days of sunshine each year. Conceived in open modules arranged in an L-shape, the villa embraces the main garden, featuring an impressive infinity pool that seamlessly merges with the sea. An open space to the outside, inviting you to bask in the sun and Mediterranean climate, yet oriented to ensure maximum privacy. The villa is divided into two levels. On the upper...(Ask for More Details!)
