Project - Located on an exclusive plot in Cumbre del Sol, Villa Ocaso is a contemporary home designed to make the most of its orientation and open views of the Mediterranean. Its modern structure, with clean lines and large floor-to-ceiling windows, allows for a natural integration between interior and exterior. The main floor concentrates the living area, with a living-dining room that opens directly onto the terrace and infinity pool. The open-plan kitchen, finished with high-end materials such as walnut wood, offers functionality and panoramic views, making it a central space for both everyday use and social gatherings. The bedrooms are located on the upper floor, all with...(Ask for More Details!)
