Check out Mediterraneo 2 – it's a really green, quiet spot with two pool areas, a tennis court, and actual parking. The apartment itself is great; you walk in through a glassed-in terrace into a bright living room with cool exposed wooden beams. It's got an open layout that flows right into the dining area and a modern kitchen. There are two bedrooms and a tiled bathroom with a shower. But the best part has to be the rooftop terrace – it's huge, has a pergola and plenty of space to lounge, and the views over El Clot are awesome.
