Set in a peaceful and elevated position within Pueblo Montecala, this two-bedroom lower floor apartment offers open valley views, a sense of privacy and excellent potential. The bright, single-level layout opens onto a generous terrace, creating an inviting space to enjoy the sunshine from morning through to the evening, with attractive sunset views across the valley. The well-maintained communal pools are just a short stroll away, while the amenities of Benitachell, including shops and restaurants, are easily reached. The popular coastal town of Moraira is also only a short drive away, known for its sandy beaches, marina and wide selection of cafés and restaurants. Presented in its original condition, the...(Ask for More Details!)
