This magnificent luxury villa was a long-time dream of the current owners. They desired a spacious Spanish-style house with ample land and multiple rooms to host their family and friends comfortably during their visits to Spain. Additionally, they had a passion for meeting people from different cultures and decided to set up a Bed & Breakfast on the property to share great moments and experiences with guests. To accomplish this, they built a separate home near the pool for their guests...(Ask for More Details!)
