We are honoured to have been asked to offer for sale a substantial commercial premise located in a prime commercial street in the centre of Pizarra pueblo. The premises extends to 103m2 and occupies the ground floor of a traditional town house. Formerly exploited by a high street bank the property is currently divided in to a large open plan area with a private office sectioned off to the front of the property and a large store room section off to the rear. There is also a bathroom to ...(Ask for More Details!)
